O R D E R

On June 30, 2014, the undersigned Magistrate Judge conducted a hearing on the Government's motion to detain Jose Ismael Peres Carvallo as a material witness pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3144. The undersigned, through an interpreter, explained to Mr. Carvallo that the Government is seeking an order detaining him for a reasonable time sufficient to obtain his sworn deposition testimony as a material witness in a pending criminal prosecution.

The undersigned explained to Mr. Carvallo that he has a right to be represented by counsel. Upon examination of his financial affidavit, the undersigned found that Mr. Carvallo is financially unable to employ counsel, and therefore the undersigned appointed the Federal Public Defender to represent him.

The undersigned further informed Mr. Carvallo that he is entitled to a hearing to determine whether he should be detained as a material witness upon the Government's motion. Mr. Carvallo, through counsel, waived his right to a detention hearing at this time, but reserved the right to raise the issue of detention upon motion if the Government fails to obtain his deposition testimony within a reasonable time.

Accordingly, the undersigned ORDERS that Mr. Carvallo be detained as a material witness pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3144.

It is so ORDERED.
